Eglin AFB wins AFMC men’s basketball championship

The Eglin AFB, Fla., Eagles went undefeated through six games last weekend, to become the 2003 Air Force Materiel Command Men’s Basketball Champions.

Brooks AFB, Texas finished second. The tournament was held at Tinker AFB, Okla., and for the first time in 11 years, all ten AFMC bases participated. The Kirtland AFB Flyers finished with a 1-3 record, losing to Eglin AFB in the preliminary round 85-80. A. J. Armstrong and King Sanders were selected to the all-tournament team, and both have been invited to the Air Force Trial Camp. The Flyers return to Southwestern Military Basketball League play this weekend with two home games against Davis Monthan AFB, Ariz., Saturday at 5 p.m. and Sunday at 11 a.m. The Flyers split their last four conference games to give them a 2-12 conference record, with six games remaining. The Southwestern Military Basketball League Championship is here, March 27-31. Tinker AFB will also host the Air Force Materiel Command Women’s Basketball Championship, March 12-18.
